General Meeting May 10

Sue Goetz The Herb Lover's Garden

We are happy to welcome Sue for a return engagement. Sue is an award-winning garden designer, writer and speaker. Last year she spoke to us about herbs in the garden; this year we will learn about using these herbs in the kitchen. Sue's new book, A Taste for Herbs, is a guide to seasonings, mixes, and blends from an herb lover's garden (see page 3). Laguna Presbyterian Church

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR • DALYNN MALEK

I know we are supposed to love all creatures in our gardens, but I HATE SNAILS! I seem to have a bumper crop of them in my garden this year, and so far they have destroyed several of my favorite plants, including a really cute

Abution Tiger Eye I got at the Village Nursery on one of the Trips & Tours excursions. I roam my yard with a can with a layer of salt on the bottom, plucking the slimy creatures from their morning noshing spots and gleefully drop them into the can to a sudden salty death. I can't keep up, and they are winning. I found this article that offers numerous ways of ridding one's yard of these vile creatures; hopefully it will help you too.

By the way, did I mention that I hate snails?

President's Message

Paying It Forward In Our Community

The best part of being your president is giving away club money on things we believe in.

Earlier in the year we gave $1,500 checks to each of the three school gardens in Laguna Beach Unified School District, which represents about a third of their school garden budgets. I personally have been gardening at Top of the World Elementary every month with other volunteers. It is gratifying to put my plant knowledge to work.

In anticipation of the Arbor Day celebrations on Main Beach, we donated money to spruce up a garden-by-the-sea there that includes a plaque with the LBGC name on it. Who knew? One more civic beautification project we can point to with pride.

At our most recent board meeting, we decided to whom we should award our scholarships, a delightful task because it is an opportunity to change lives by encouraging education that benefits the planet. We selected two Laguna Beach High School seniors and one student from Saddleback Community College. All of the applicants are bright and dedicated, but we were able to make clear choices and reward students whose educational goals align with our mission. So thank YOU for all the times you stepped up to volunteer at our fundraisers; you have made it possible for us to change lives.

See you at the May 10 meeting!

May Speaker

Sue Goetz ~ The Herb Lover's Garden

She'll Share Ways to Use Our Herb Crops in Our Kitchens

Sue Goetz, based in Washington State and owner of Creative Gardener, shares her passion for gardening. Her motto"inspiring gardeners to create" defines all of her talks. Hands-on, how to's or simply for creative inspiration, her down to earth approach is shared with audiences all over the country. Trained in horticulture and design, Sue presents topics with the factual, trusted knowledge of a seasoned gardener.

"My business grew out of a desire to inspire people to grow and use gardens with a creative eye. In 2004, my garden coaching, design, lectures and freelance writing became a full-time business named Creative Gardener. I know people have many opportunities to learn how to garden, but to inspire them by what plants and design can truly do to make a garden their own is what drives the work I do. I enjoy watching that evolution from being a gardener who buys plants to being a gardener who creates a garden."

Sue is a garden designer, writer and speaker. Author of The Herb Lover's Spa Book.

Through her business Creative Gardener, she works with clients to personalize outdoor spaces-from garden coaching the small seasonal tasks to full landscape design projects. Her garden design work has earned gold medals at the Northwest Flower & Garden Show and the Point Defiance Flower and Garden show as well as the Fine Gardening magazine "Best Design" award. Sue was also noted as one of the top 50 garden designers in Northwest Home and Garden Magazine (March issue 2005 and 2007).

She loves the outreach side of her work including freelance writing, a self-published newsletter, horticulture classes, public speaking engagements and workshops. Sue is certified as a professional horticulturalist (CPH) with the Washington State Nursery Association, is a Northwest Horticultural Society board member and a member of the Garden Writers of America. Visit her blog by clicking here: <https://creativegardener.blog/>

Our club's creative apparel designers have come up with a great new gardening apron. They are available now at the general meetings.

2019 Gate & Garden Tour in Emerald Bay & Adjacent Neighborhood Was A Sold Out Success!

It takes a village, or in our case, a whole bunch of hard working Garden Club members to put on an AMAZING garden tour. May 3 was a perfect success due to the organization of the tour committee lead by the unflappable Karen Nelson. The tour gardens were manicured to perfection & Connie Maxsenti's Arabella Laguna looked festive for Cinco de Mayo. Tour goers enjoyed margaritas, mimosas, tacos & burritos. The cookie table overflowed with delicious treats accompanied by freshly roasted coffee from Chris

Lutz. The raffle table had a constant crowd coveting the fabulous prizes Lynn Jax procured from various stores and artists in Laguna. The 4:00 pm drawing was abuzz with anticipation as the winning names were called.

Th winner of the raffle's grand prize, two years in a row, Ana Sanchez, responds in complete shock. That's one lucky gal!

Summing Up Success

The spectacular gardens behind the private gated community in North Laguna Beach and adjacent neighborhood were the venue for this year's Gate & Garden tour. The tour featured 8 homes that ranged from an over-the-top spectacular Mediterranean Villa garden, to several lush secret gardens. At the largest garden, an additional surprise and incredible treat for our members, was having the homeowner, Greg Salmeri, owner of Rolling Greens Nursery, open his amazing home our guests to tour. As if that was not enough, Greg provided refreshments fit for a king for the tour participants to enjoy while visiting his home and garden.

One of the new features that our tour added this year, was a landscape designer to create a spectacular Zen and waterwise landscape.

Our 400 guests enjoyed the fun at Arabella Laguna with the most talked about "Cadillac Margarita" made from our sponsor's Tequila Corcel's premium Reposada aged 100% agave Tequila. Guests entered the gardens of Arabella and were awestruck by the quaint beauty and the magnificent ambiance that is the Gate & Garden Tour's claim to fame. Guests were thrilled with the warmth and hospitality that was offered to them during the tour by our incredible volunteers. This year's raffle was sponsorship by The Laguna Beach Water District who chose the 2019 "Most Waterwise Gate & Garden". The winner was garden #6, the home of Stacy Simondi, who partnered with her part of our year's "over the top" theme with over $7000 of prizes for the lucky winners! A huge shout out to our major sponsor, Tracy & Jeffrey Katz for jumping in and becoming a huge supporter of our event! If you missed the fun this year, don't despair, tickets are already on sale on the website for the 2020 tour!

April's Trips & Tours Took Us to Debbie Sugg's AMAZING Bird & Turtle Friendly Garden

Debbie and Ralph Sugg welcomed us into their wonderful garden on Friday, April 26. Members noshed on bagels & sipped coffee or mimosas while they meandered through Debbie's multi-level yard, spotting the various species of birds who call her trees their home.

Delightful April Showers Covered Our Centerpiece Designer & Volunteer of the Month

When it rained, it poured on Sherry Stephens at the April general meeting. She made the beautiful birdcage-themed centerpiece for the treat table that set the tone for spring. Sherry was also selected as April Volunteer of the Month for both her table arrangement and for welcoming our members into her home & garden as part of the March Open Gardens Happy Hour. Thank you Sherry!

By-Law Changes Will Be Voted Upon At The May Meeting

Each year the Club's By-Laws are reviewed to ensure that the document is current with the club's activities.

At the May 10 meeting, there will be vote to approve the "newly revised" By-Laws.

Please review the document.

The items in RED indicate new wording or a new item added. The biggest change is that the Board decided to delineate the responsibilities of each board position. We did that using • bullet points.

Thank you, Lynn Jax, Past President

By-Laws of Laguna Beach Garden Club, Inc.

ARTICLE I – Objectives of the Club

The organization shall be known as the Laguna Beach Garden Club (LBGC). The objectives of the LBGC are to promote our Mission Statement:

Laguna Beach Garden Club is a service organization, committed to the advancement of gardening, horticulture, ecology, and conservation through education and participation in related community projects.

The LBGC may also provide financial support of educational and environmental projects and civic beautification in compliance with the annual budget.

ARTICLE II – Venue

The principal venue for the transaction of the business of the Laguna Beach Garden Club is hereby fixed and located in the City of Laguna Beach, County of Orange, State of California.

ARTICLE III – Membership

Section 1. Any adult interested in actively participating in the objectives for which the LBGC is formed is eligible for membership.
